I. Preamble

Priests, Deacons, Seminarians, Religious Personnel, Pastoral Ministers, Spiritual Counselors, Administrators, Lay Employees, Lay Volunteers and Contract Employees in our parishes, schools, programs and organizations must uphold Christian values and conduct. Parents are also encouraged to take an active interest in any and all services and programs in which their children are involved in the Diocese. The Diocese of Bridgeport Code of Conduct provides a set of standards for conduct that apply to all Clergy, Lay employees, volunteers and contract employers within the Diocese. This document is subject to change. For the purpose of this document, Priests, Deacons, Seminarians, Religious Personnel, Pastoral Ministers, Spiritual Counselors, Administrators, Lay Employees, Lay Volunteers and Contract Employees will be referred to from this point forward as Personnel.

A Minor is defined as a person under the age of 18.

A Young Adult is defined as a person age 18-20. Both a Minor and a Young Adult are defined as Youth

An Adult is defined as a person age 21 or older.

A Vulnerable Adult is defined for the purpose of this document as an adult who experiences physical, emotional, intellectual, or psychological impairment.

II. Responsibility

The public and private conduct of Personnel of the Diocese of Bridgeport can inspire and motivate people, but it can also offend people and undermine their faith. Personnel of the Diocese of Bridgeport must, at all times, be aware of the responsibilities that accompany their work. They must also know that God's goodness and grace support them in their ministry. Responsibility for adherence to the Code of Conduct rests with the individual. Personnel who disregard this Code of Conduct will be subject to disciplinary action which may take various forms up to and including dismissal from employment or volunteering depending on the specific nature and circumstances of the offense and the extent of the harm.

III. Conduct

1. Conduct for Pastoral Counselors, Professional Counselors and Spiritual Directors

Professional Counselors, Pastoral Counselors and Spiritual Directors must respect the rights and advance the welfare of each person being counseled. Professional Counselors, Pastoral Counselors, Case Managers, Spiritual Directors and any other Personnel of The Diocese of Bridgeport providing counseling services will be referred to as Counselors from this point forward.

Professional Counselors and case management staff of Catholic Charities are mandated by state licensure and/or their credentialing organizations to maintain the highest standards regarding client confidentiality, conduct/contact with minors, reporting requirements, conflict of interest and harassment. Additionally, Catholic Family Services clinical counseling staff adheres to the policies of the Catholic Charities Mental Health Clinic Manual, as well as the National Association of Social Workers Code of Ethics. Counseling and case management staff of Catholic Charities must adhere to these professional regulations and they will supersede the Counseling Standards section of the Diocesan Code of Conduct

- 1.1 Counselors shall not step beyond their competence in counseling situations and shall refer clients to other professionals when appropriate.
- 1.2 Counselors should carefully consider the possible consequences before entering into a counseling relationship with someone with whom they have a pre-existing relationship.
- 1.3 Counselors should not audiotape or videotape sessions without proper authorization.
- 1.4 Counselors must never engage in sexual intimacies with the persons they counsel. This includes consensual and nonconsensual contact, forced physical contact, and inappropriate sexual comments.
- 1.5 Counselors must never engage in sexual intimacies with individuals who are close to the client—such as relatives or friends of the client—when there is a risk of exploitation or potential harm to the client. Counselors should presume that the potential for exploitation or harm exists in such intimate relationships.
- 1.6 Counselors assume the full burden of responsibility for establishing and maintaining clear, appropriate boundaries in all counseling and counseling-related relationships. Counseling sessions should be conducted in professional settings at appropriate times except where particular circumstances warrant otherwise.
- 1.7 Counselors shall maintain a log of the times and places of scheduled sessions with each person being counseled.

2. Confidentiality

*Information disclosed to a Counselor during the course of counseling, advising or spiritual direction shall be held in the strictest confidence possible. All legal requirements will be followed in any case where there is an allegation of abuse against a minor except when the information is obtained under the Sacramental Seal of the Sacrament of Reconciliation. Information obtained under the Sacramental Seal is absolutely prohibited from disclosure.

- 2.1 Information obtained in the course of counseling sessions shall be confidential, except for compelling professional reasons or as required by law. If there is clear and imminent danger to the client or to others, the Counselor must disclose only the information necessary to protect the parties affected and to prevent harm.
 - 2.1.1 Before disclosure is made, if feasible, the Counselor should inform the person being counseled about the disclosure and the potential consequences.
- 2.2 While counseling a minor, if a counselor discovers that there is a serious threat to the welfare of the minor and that communication of confidential information to a parent or legal guardian and to the proper civil authorities is essential to the child's health and well-being, the Counselor should attempt to secure consent from the minor for the specific disclosure. If consent is not given, disclose the information necessary to protect the health and well-being of the minor. Consultation with a supervisor and notification of appropriate church officials is required before disclosure. Counselors should discuss the nature of confidentiality and its limitations with each person in counseling.
- 2.3 Counselors should not discuss confidential information in any setting unless privacy can be ensured. Confidential information should not be discussed in public or semi-public areas such as hallways, waiting rooms, elevators, and restaurants.

6. Supervision of Programs that involve Minors

The primary standard being implemented here is the presence of multiple adults (at least two) at all church-related programs and activities for minors. This standard does not apply to the Sacrament of Reconciliation or to situations where an individual is seeking unscheduled and immediate pastoral care or scheduled clinical counseling sessions. The goal of this standard is to lessen the chances of abuse occurring or going unnoticed. In this light:

- 6.1 The Rule of Two. Personnel must be aware of their own and others' vulnerability when working alone with youth. Use a team approach by ensuring that there are always two or more adults present when managing all youth activities.
- 6.2 Religious instruction outside the parish property: The Diocese of Bridgeport strongly recommends against religious instruction that takes place outside the parish property however if there is no alternative but to hold class off site, the following regulations must be in place:
 - 6.2.1 A Home Assessment must be conducted by the DRE to insure that all persons over the age of 18 in the household or at the designated location have cleared the criminal background check and completed the VIRTUS training. Parents may always instruct their own children for religious education in their own homes
 - 6.2.2 The D.R.E. must be sure that everyone over the age of 18 in the household or at the designated location has signed the Sexual Misconduct Policy AND the Code of Conduct.
 - 6.2.3 TWO unrelated adults must be present during the full duration of the class.
 - 6.2.4 The D.R.E. will be required to randomly audit the class.
 - 6.2.5 The proper liability insurance must be maintained by the homeowner and the parish indemnifying the Diocese for all claims arising out of any and all injuries sustained at the location of the class..
- 6.3 Personnel under the age of 18 in the Diocese of Bridgeport must work under the direction of an adult supervisor, including classrooms, religious education, retreats and when babysitting on Diocesan premises.
- 6.4 Pastors, Principals and Supervisory Personnel must be aware of and approve all programs for minors that are sponsored by a parish, school, or institution and should do so only after the appropriate standards and safeguards are in place.
- 6.5 There should always be at least one adult present in each classroom and another adult supervisor or monitor must also be present in the same building when religious education classes, school classes or other youth group meetings are being held.
- 6.6 Outside group meetings and programs that regularly take place on Diocesan premises, must have a written agreement for the use of that meeting space which comply with Safe Environment regulations. The contact person or the Diocesan sponsor of the group using the premise must sign the Sexual Misconduct Policy, sign this Code of Conduct, clear a criminal background check and attend a designated awareness training session.
- 6.7 When Personnel of the Diocese of Bridgeport are working one-on-one with a minor, the door to the meeting space must be left open and a second adult must be present within the same building. Professional Counselors who work one-on-one with minors should follow professional licensing standards and agency protocol for regulating the supervision and use of appropriate counseling rooms and office space. Whenever possible, all classrooms and counseling rooms should have doors with a window. It is highly recommended that future construction of confessionals and confidential meeting spaces contain glass doors or windows where practicable.
- 6.8 Separate lavatories for adults and children should be used whenever possible. Lavatory use by minors should be monitored at all times. The supervising adult should ensure that the lavatory is not currently in use by other adults and should monitor from outside the doorway.
- 6.9 The Code of Conduct applies to all Diocesan sponsored parish, school or institutional overnight camping, overnight retreats, overnight trips or other scheduled and approved events of this nature. In these cases, male and female minors will be segregated as well as adult chaperones unless they are married. Under no circumstances will a lone minor stay by his or herself in a room or tent. Curfews will be imposed and pairs of adult male and female chaperones, females checking females and males checking males will perform curfew bed checks. There will always be two adults conducting the bed checks.
- 6.10 If adults must stay in the same facility, room or tent as any minors, then there must be two or more adults of the same gender in the facility, room or tent.

- 6.11 Buildings and meeting space should be monitored and inspected at all times by a supervisor to insure the safety of the meeting space, to address any safety concerns and to control access to the building. Report any safety concerns immediately to the pastor, lay supervisor or to a Diocesan official.
- 6.12 Anonymous Self-Help groups should be permitted to meet on Diocesan premises only during times when there are no minors present in the building.

7. Conflicts of Interest

A conflict of interest is a conflict between the private interests and the official or professional responsibilities of a person in a position of trust. Personnel of the Diocese of Bridgeport should avoid situations that might present a conflict of interest. Even the appearance of a conflict of interest can call integrity and professional conduct into question. The following rules apply:

- 7.1 Personnel of the Diocese of Bridgeport should disclose all relevant factors that potentially could create a conflict of interest. Personnel should inform all parties when a real or potential conflict of interest arises. The resolution of the issues must protect the person receiving services.
- 7.2 No Personnel should take advantage of anyone to whom they are providing services in order to further their personal, religious, political, financial or business interests.
- 7.3 Counselors should not provide counseling services to anyone with whom they have a prior professional or social relationship. When this is unavoidable, the client must be protected. The Counselor must establish and maintain clear and appropriate boundaries at all times.
- 7.4 When counseling services are provided to two or more people who have a relationship with each other, the Counselor must clarify with all parties the nature of each relationship, anticipate any conflict of interest, take appropriate actions to eliminate the conflict and obtain from all parties written consent to continue services
- 7.5 A conflict of interest may be present when a Counselor's independent judgment is impaired by prior dealings, becoming personally involved or becoming an advocate for one (person) against another. In these circumstances, the Counselor will advise the parties that he or she can no longer provide services and refer them to another Counselor or Spiritual Director
